

Wine Spectator

FELTON ROAD

Pinot Noir Central Otago Bannockburn 2018

95 points | $52 | 5372 cases made, 199 cases imported | Red

Aromatic and expressive, with raspberry, cherry and fresh herb notes that are precise on a smooth and supple frame, offering details of matcha green tea, white pepper and forest floor. A hint of fresh nutmeg lingers on the long, expressive finish, where the tannins provide a slight grip. Drink now through 2034.

—M.W.

A sneak preview from the April 30, 2020 Issue