

Recommended Wines from New Zealand

Felton Road, Pinot Noir Block 3, 2011 (Central Otago, New Zealand)

“Supple and refined, with a core of focused and juicy cherry and strawberry flavors, showing tremendous power and focus. Delivers wave after wave of spice, floral, mineral and herb details, never losing intensity.”

93 Points

Felton Road, Pinot Noir Block 5, 2011 (Central Otago, New Zealand)

“The crushed raspberry and wild strawberry flavors are pure, bright and focused, with aromatic green tea, white pepper and cigar box notes filling in the gaps. Smooth, refreshing and polished.”

91 Points

Felton Road, Pinot Noir Cornish Point, 2011 (Central Otago, New Zealand)

“Expressive and delicate, offering dried lavender, fresh wild strawberry and cranberry flavors, with nutmeg and cedar notes. Light-bodied and extremely supple, this exhibits a fresh loamy earth character.”

92 Points

Felton Road, Pinot Noir Calvert, 2011 (Central Otago, New Zealand)

“Offers nice aromatics, with black tea, cinnamon and mahogany notes, showing plenty of intensity from the smooth, round plum, cherry and berry flavors. Finds a good balance, exuding elegance and power, with a long finish.”

90 Points

Felton Road, Pinot Noir Bannockburn, 2011 (Central Otago, New Zealand)

“Smooth and elegant, with pretty touches of white pepper, fresh herb and dried rose petal to the crisp cherry and cranberry flavors. The tannins firm up on the finish, but never get in the way of the wine.”
