

Sustainable Winegrowing New Zealand

1231 Felton Road - Winery is a certified winery equivalence member of Sustainable Winegrowing New Zealand for the 2023/2024 season.

Valid from: 1 July 2023 – 30 June 2024

Based on organic certification: BioGro #5877
- Valid from 01.03.2024 to 28.02.2025

All equivalence members must show annual proof of organic certification in order to retain Sustainable Winegrowing NZ (SWNZ) equivalence membership status. If there is a change in the winery's organic status, the SWNZ equivalence status will also be impacted.

Vineyards and wineries granted SWNZ equivalence status are not entitled to make any individual claims with respect to SWNZ certification, or use the SWNZ logo in their own right.

This letter demonstrates that, as at the time of printing, the above named meets the SWNZ Terms and Conditions for SWNZ certification set by New Zealand Winegrowers Inc for the date range indicated above.

Please note, in the event of serious non-compliance with these Terms and Conditions, status letters may be cancelled.

For more information, please consult the full Terms and Conditions available at nzwine.com/en/sustainability/swnz/terms/.

SWNZ is widely recognised as a world-leading sustainability programme. It's an achievement we can all be proud of, and makes our industry unique in the world.
